Outcomes

These programs will deepen your understanding of the theory and practice of language teaching, and provide you with specialist knowledge to supplement or advance your qualifications.

You will explore themes including:

- methodology and curriculum design
- intercultural development and language acquisition
- bilingual education
- content and language integrated learning (CLIL)
- historical, social and political influences on the teaching of modern languages.

Stream A is for qualified teachers who wish to be recognised by the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) as a Languages teacher. Stream B is for those who do not require VIT registration.

Academic staff

You will benefit from the research and practical experience of leading academics, including Professor Joseph Lo Bianco, Dr Russell Cross and Dr Ulrike Najar.

Delivery modes

Most subjects are delivered by on-campus lectures and tutorials. Stream A students must ensure they are available for 22 days of supervised placement at a school or similar setting during school hours.

The Melbourne Graduate School of Education is Australia's number one and among the world's finest for Education* (*QS World University Rankings by Subject).
